typing.com

ESSER III Funding for Primary and Secondary Schools

The Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief (ESSER) fund, which was passed by Congress in 2020 and 2021, allocates almost 200 billion dollars to K-12 education.

The chart below shows allowable uses, funding sources, and a description of how Typing.com fits with the specific use.

ESSER I:
The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, passes in March 2020, provided $13.2 billion to the ESSER fund.

ESSER II:
The Coronavirus Recovery and Relief Supplemental Appropriations (CRRSA) Act, passed in December 2020, allocated over $54 billion to the ESSER fund.

ESSER III:
The American Rescue Plan (ARP), passed in March 2021, provided more than $122 billion to the ESSER fund.

Allowable Uses of ESSER Funds	ESSER Funding Source	How Typing.com Premium Aligns
"Activities to address the unique needs of low-income children or students, children with disabilities, English learners, and others"	I,II,III	All of Typing.com's accessibility features for the hard of hearing, visually impaired. Typing.com is WCAG 2.0 compliant, dictation, fully customizable for children who learn at different paces so that you can implement easily into IEPs and 504 plans. To support English learners Typing.com is also available in multiple languages.
"Tracking student attendance and improving student engagement in distance education"	III	Teacher and district dashboards give educators the ability to track progress, monitor usage, and follow assignment activity. With Premium you have access to all your data forever while gamification and personal goal-setting increase student engagement. Reporting for parents or classroom progress is also available.

Want to know more about how Typing.com Premium can qualify for ESSER III funding?
Schedule a call HERE.