YOUR CUSTOM TYPING CONTENT:

Celebrating the new year may look different around the world, but one common theme is that many people are hoping to welcome a prosperous upcoming year. In Denmark, people break unused plates on New Year's Eve; the more broken shards, the luckier you will be. In Spain, many believe that eating 12 grapes at midnight will guarantee a favorable year ahead. In Colombia, people run around their block with an empty suitcase to ensure a year full of travel. In China, the Lunar New Year falls between January 21st and February 21st (the lunar calendar changes based on the new moon). Families give out lucky money in red envelopes to their loved ones along with special messages. How are you planning to welcome the new year?
