YOUR CUSTOM TYPING CONTENT:

You may know that crops such as pumpkins and apples are harvested in the fall, but did you know that there are many other tasty fall fruits and veggies? Corn is usually harvested from September through December. It is ready to be picked when its silky fibers turn brown. Sweet potatoes are also harvested in the fall; they are ready for picking once their vines begin to turn yellow. Pears should also be harvested in the fall, and they are ready to be picked once they are fully formed but not yet ripe. What are your favorite fall fruits and vegetables?
